

B.Tech. Degree VIII Semester (Supplementary) Examination, September 2006

CS 805 (A) ELECTRONIC COMMERCE
(Prior to 2002 Admissions)

Time: 3 Hours

Maximum Marks: 100

- I a) What are benefits of doing business on the Internet? (10)
b) Write short notes on Electronic Data Interchange (EDI). (10)
OR
- II a) What are the hardware and software measures taken to secure E-commerce? (10)
b) What are the major threats to E-Commerce? (10)
- III a) Explain the role of VB script in validating HTML form elements. (10)
b) Explain the HTML tags required for creating a complete table in a web page. (10)
OR
- IV a) How do you develop Web Client Applications by using Java, Java script and HTML? (10)
b) Discuss the commonly used objects and functions of Javascript. (10)
- V a) What are the pros and cons of Server-side scripting? (10)
b) Discuss various services provided by the Request and Response objects in ASP. (10)
OR
- VI a) Explain how cookies and Sessions are created and used in Servlets. (10)
b) Explain how Database operations are performed from within a Servlet. (10)
- VII a) Write notes on E-Cash. (10)
b) Briefly explain about Digital signatures. (10)
OR
- VIII What is SEPP? Explain any Two secured E-payment systems. (20)
- IX What is the need to have Operating Systems secured? Discuss various measures taken to secure Operating Systems. (20)
OR
- X a) Discuss about certifying technologies. (10)
b) What is a Firewall? How do you safeguard Network Servers? (10)

